Terms and Conditions For Deposit Application

Deposits are locked in until the maturity date, such that the investment may not be redeemed or withdrawn until the investment matures.

Bank West guarantees the repayment of 100% of the principal sum in Canadian funds to the Registered Investor on the maturity date. Interest will be paid in accordance with the terms noted and with the information recorded on the Company's Register not less than 5 days prior to the date on which payment is due.

Bank West will mail post-dated interest cheques and maturing deposit investment cheques to the Agent or registered owner pursuant to the Broker Deposit Agreement, before the payment due date, so that payments may be expected to arrive by the due date. Interest will not be paid on any investment beyond the maturity date, and Bank West will not be responsible for any interest penalties on cheques not received due to mail delays or lost mail, but will work with the Deposit Broker and registered owner to replace any lost items in an expeditious fashion.

Bank West will mail investment confirmations within 15 days of receiving deposit funds.

Bank West will not be liable for any direct, indirect, or consequential damages resulting from any failure, error, delay, or inaccessibility of any system or equipment related to funds transfer, including but not limited to, postal delivery and other bank electronic funds transfer systems.

For deposits made by several depositors which includes a right of survivorship, the depositors agree that Bank West, upon receipt of a death certificate, shall repay the investment balance to the survivors or sole survivor as the case may be (except accounts established in Quebec). Unless otherwise indicated, the deposit investment will be without right of survivorship.

For joint accounts, an attorney for the account cannot be established without the consent of all depositors. Bank West may act on instructions with respect to the investment from any one of the depositors provided they do not substantially alter the rights of each of the other depositors to the investment funds, otherwise Bank West may require each of the joint account holders to confirm instructions.

Investments are non-transferable.

In the event of any errors, the depositor ("Depositor") should contact the Deposit Broker who will then contact Bank West.

Any electronic communication received from the Depositor or in the name of the Depositor will be deemed to be duly authorized by the Depositor. The Depositor authorizes us to rely and act on any such communication. Bank West will not be obligated to verify electronic facsimile signatures or any instructions received electronically, although to the extent Bank West does attempt to verify such information and is unable to do so, the Bank may delay in acting on or refuse to act on such instructions.

Personal information that Bank West maintains regarding the Depositor will be used only in activities generally carried out by Bank West and its affiliates.
